Neal Watson's Bimini Scuba Center recently announced plans to move its scuba diving operation from South Bimini to Bimini Big Game Club Resort & Marina on North Bimini.

Both companies expect this partnership to improve the guest experience and widen their customer base.

Best known for its "Great Hammerhead Shark Safaris" and scuba diving packages, Neal Watson's Bimini Scuba Center will now also offer a variety of water sports and excursions for non-divers including Kayak Tours, Stand-up Paddle Board Tours and Sunset Cruises. Plans to open a retail space in the near future have also been discussed.

The resort and scuba center also plan to implement several environmentally-friendly business practices to reduce the operation's local environmental footprint, including a paperless check-in process and the use of reusable, 100% recycled water bottles on-board the dive boat.

Scuba Center Founder Neal Watson Sr. said:

"Who could have dreamed that when I started the first dive operation in Bimini in 1975 that it would come full circle and my son, Neal Watson II, would be running the family business over 40 years later. What makes it even more exciting is being part of the newly remodeled Bimini Big Game Club."
